

As a citizen of the State of Indiana, I am strongly opposed to any changes in our current "no call law." I value my family time in the evenings without phone calls soliciting my business. If I want to talk to my bank or loan company I will call them during business hours. Thank You